Art takes us places... Start here!

Our Education Team has experience teaching university students in a wide range of disciplines and will work with you to offer educational experiences that explore the connections between art and your curriculum.

We offer a variety of educational resources for your courses, including:

- Guided tours of current exhibitions
- Facilitated conversations
- A visit to our study room to view works from our collection
- An introduction to the museum's background, architecture, and current exhibitions
- Group activities with hands-on interactions
- Change of space from your regular classroom setting

Frequently Asked Questions:

What is the cost? Museum admission, tours, and all university programs are free.

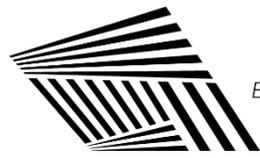

Can we take pictures? Yes, photography without flash is permitted in the galleries unless specifically noted. Video is not allowed in any gallery space.

Can we bring sketchbooks? Yes. However, if your group would like to draw in the galleries, we require that you use pencil only.

Where do we park? If you are arriving by car, there are metered spots available in the parking ramps both on and off campus. If you are arriving by bus, the drop-off and pick-up location is directly outside the museum. Buses will wait in Lot 85.

Can we eat lunch? The museum is within walking distance to both on and off-campus dining.
