

DOCENT INFORMATION + APPLICATION

MSU BROAD

BECOME A DOCENT FOR THE MSU BROAD!

WHAT EXACTLY IS A DOCENT?

A docent serves as a guide and educator in a museum. Docents are enthusiastic and creative and enjoy sharing their knowledge and excitement of contemporary art with the public. They present engaging, interactive tours of the museum and serve as an interpretation guide for visitors.

Docents tour different groups through the galleries. This may include K-12 school groups, the public, university classes, and groups from other institutions. Docents are trained to interpret our growing collection and current exhibitions to aid the visitor in experiencing contemporary art.

The class will take place on Mondays from 4-6pm beginning Sept. 17, 2018. The 16-week training course will include lectures on modern and contemporary art and will incorporate the most current touring strategies and techniques.
