Shop Artisanal and Eclectic Goods from Creatives Across Michigan at the MSU Broad Art Lab's First Makers Market

East Lansing, MI – The MSU Broad Art Lab is excited to announce its first-ever Makers Market April 27–28! This two-day event will empower a growing and vibrant community of creatives across the Mitten State, held in its very own capital city.

The Makers Market will feature an MSU Broad members-only preview on Saturday, April 27 from 4–8pm, with complimentary champagne and appetizers. The market will then be open to the public on Sunday, April 28 from 10am–4pm. Like admission to the museum, MSU Broad membership is free and available to all. Anyone who wants to attend the members-only market preview can become a member that day at the door, or online at broadmuseum.msu.edu/membership.

Shop a variety of handmade goods from Michigan makers, just in time for Mothers' Day! The Makers Market will feature an eclectic selection of original artwork, jewelry, ceramics, bath and body products, home goods, apparel, and more. Blue Owl Coffee and Campbell's Market Basket will also be onsite on Sunday selling delicious food and drinks.

The MSU Broad Art Lab opened across the street from the museum in May of 2018 with a $1 million gift from MSU Federal Credit Union and is an expression of the museum's commitment to creating engaging arts and cultural experiences for a diverse audience, connecting art to other disciplines, and positioning the museum as innovative and inclusive. The Art Lab encourages the community to engage with art and art-making through dynamic exhibitions, workshops, events, and social gatherings.
