Night at the Museums Returns to Michigan State University's Museums

East Lansing, MI – The Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum at Michigan State University (MSU Broad Art Museum) is pleased to present Night at the Museums, an all-ages evening jointly hosted by the Michigan State University Museum (MSU Museum) and MSU Broad Art Museum. Night at the Museums takes place at both museums this Friday, Apr. 22, 2022 from 6–8pm.

Offered in partnership with the MSU Science Festival, this free event will feature science and art-inspired activities, ranging from behind-the-scenes tours to family-friendly art making. This year, both the MSU Science Festival and MSU Broad Art Museum are celebrating their tenth anniversaries.

Visit broadmuseum.msu.edu/calendar for more information and to register today. Admission is free and families are welcome.

The MSU Broad Art Museum is located at 547 E Circle Dr, East Lansing, MI 48824.

The MSU Museum is located at 409 W Circle Dr, East Lansing, MI 48823.

The Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum at Michigan State University (MSU Broad Art Museum) connects people with art through experiences that inspire curiosity and inquiry. Presenting exhibitions and programs that engage diverse communities around issues of local relevance and global significance, the MSU Broad advances the university values of quality, inclusion, and connectivity. Opened on November 10, 2012, the museum was designed by Pritzker Prize-winning architect Zaha Hadid and named in honor of Eli and Edythe Broad, longtime supporters of the university who provided the lead gift for its creation.

Michigan State University has been working to advance the common good in uncommon ways for more than 150 years. One of the top research universities in the world, MSU focuses its vast resources on creating solutions to some of the world's most pressing challenges, while providing life-changing opportunities to a diverse and inclusive academic community through more than 200 programs of study in 17 degree-granting colleges.
