Summer Art Camp Returns to the MSU Broad Art Museum

East Lansing, MI – The Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum at Michigan State University (MSU Broad Art Museum) is offering in-person Summer Art Camp at the museum this June–August for campers ages 6–12.

This is not your average art camp! MSU Broad Summer Art Camp: Kid Studio begins June 13 with weekly camps running through August 8, 2022. Creative campers are invited to spend their week in the MSU Broad Art Museum’s one-of-a-kind building working alongside other creative kids to experiment, wonder, imagine, and create. Campers will make and see art all around the museum as they explore the endless possibilities of art.

2022 Summer Art Camp Dates and Sessions:

Kids are Curious:

June 13–17 (Ages 6–9) and June 20–24 (Ages 10–12)

Looking for something out of the ordinary? Let's get curious about the many ways art can be unusual, unexpected, and unbelievable! Create your own surprising artwork in this fun and playful camp.

Kids are Brave:

June 27–July 1 (Ages 6–9) and July 11–15 (Ages 10–12)

Do you have something to say? Explore the incredible ways artists share their voices to create art that is fun and fearless. Create powerful artwork that expresses your own thoughts in a big way!

Kids are Inventive:

July 18–22 (Ages 6–9) and July 25–29 (Ages 10–12)

Want to make a discovery? Journey into the unknown as we try out new ideas, materials, and processes while learning about inventive artists. Create artwork that stretches your imagination and creativity!

Kids are Social:

August 1–5 (Ages 6–12)

How do you communicate? Discover the unique ways artists listen and respond to their communities. Create artwork in conversation with the people, places, and things around you!

Kids are Connected:

August 8–12 (Ages 6–12)

How do you collaborate? Discover the many ways artists share ideas, learn from each other, and work together as a team. Create artwork that connects our camp community!

MSU Broad Summer Art Camps run for one week with the choice of a morning session (9am–12pm) or an afternoon session (1–4pm). Want a longer day and more art? Enroll in both sessions (9am–4pm). The 2022 enrollment fee is $150 for one session or $300 for the full day.

The MSU Broad Art Museum is committed to keeping camp accessible and affordable for all families. Both full and partial need-based scholarships are offered by the museum for individual camp participants. Learn more at broadmuseum.msu.edu/summerartcamp

The Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum at Michigan State University (MSU Broad Art Museum) connects people with art through experiences that inspire curiosity and inquiry.

Presenting exhibitions and programs that engage diverse communities around issues of local relevance and global significance, the MSU Broad advances the university values of quality, inclusion, and connectivity. Opened on November 10, 2012, the museum was designed by Pritzker Prize-winning architect Zaha Hadid and named in honor of Eli and Edythe Broad, longtime supporters of the university who provided the lead gift for its creation.

Michigan State University has been working to advance the common good in uncommon ways for more than 150 years. One of the top research universities in the world, MSU focuses its vast resources on creating solutions to some of the world's most pressing challenges, while providing life-changing opportunities to a diverse and inclusive academic community through more than 200 programs of study in 17 degree-granting colleges.
