2025 FALL OPENING PARTY CELEBRATES MSU BROAD ART MUSEUM'S NEWEST EXHIBITIONS

All ages are welcome to this museum-wide party!

East Lansing, MI – Join the Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum at Michigan State University (MSU Broad Art Museum) for their annual Fall Opening Party event on Friday, September 12, from 6–10pm. All are invited to check out the museum's newest exhibitions while enjoying music from Impact 89FM, screen printing, button making, painting, lawn games, and more. This year, the "glow-in-the-dark" party theme returns! At 8pm, the museum is "glowing" big with black-light art supplies to illuminate the remainder of the evening.

The Fall Opening Party celebrates the exhibitions Mekong Voices: Transnational River Justice in Mainland Southeast Asia (Sep. 14, 2025–Feb. 22, 2026), Africa Past, Present, and Future: Celebrating 65 Years of the MSU African Studies Center (Jul. 19, 2025–Jan. 18, 2026), unbecoming (Jun. 7–Dec. 14, 2025), and Americans and the Holocaust: A Michigan Perspective (May 11–Nov. 16, 2025).

Visitors are encouraged to reserve their free tickets in advance to attend the Fall Opening Party at broadmuseum.msu.edu. All ages are welcome to this museum-wide party!

The 2025 Fall Opening Party is supported by MSUFCU.

The Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum at Michigan State University (MSU Broad Art Museum) connects people with art through experiences that inspire curiosity and inquiry. Presenting exhibitions and programs that engage diverse communities around issues of local relevance and global significance, the MSU Broad Art Museum advances the university values of quality, inclusion, and connectivity. Opened on November 10, 2012, the museum was designed by Pritzker Prize-winning architect Zaha Hadid and named in honor of Eli and Edythe Broad, longtime supporters of the university who provided the lead gift for its creation.

Michigan State University has been working to advance the common good in uncommon ways for more than 150 years. One of the top research universities in the world, MSU focuses its vast resources on creating solutions to some of the world's most pressing challenges, while providing life-changing opportunities to a diverse and inclusive academic community through more than 200 programs of study in 17 degree-granting colleges.
